Celebrating 10+ Years of Excellence

Since our inception in October 2013 with just 35 students, University of Kigali (UoK) has experienced remarkable growth in enrolment. Currently, we have over 7,000 students from 33 countries across Africa, Asia, and Europe. As of May 2024, UoK has produced over 9,000 graduates, reflecting our commitment to transformative education, internationalisation, and world-class excellence.

Our vision is driven by a team of promoters with diverse expertise, dedicated multinational academic and professional faculty, and highly skilled non-academic staff. Our faculty not only meets but exceeds the national requirement for the number of PhD holders. We partner with esteemed regional and global institutions to offer student exchange programmes, enhancing employability and global exposure.

Our six schools and three specialised centres cater to a wide range of academic and professional needs and contribute significantly to national and regional development. More than 100 Certified Public Accountants (CPAs) in Rwanda have qualified through UoK's School of Professional and Executive Programmes, representing slightly over a quarter of all CPAs in the country.

UoK operates on five pillars: Academic Excellence, Research & Innovation, Community Engagement, Green University Initiative, and Organisational Excellence. Our commitment to inclusive education, leadership, and innovation ensures that our graduates meet the dynamic demands of the global labour market.

Choose University of Kigali for comprehensive education, experienced faculty, diverse and industry-relevant programmes, a vibrant student community, and flexible learning options that fit your lifestyle.

“Advance your education, career, and future with UoK!”
